4. Treasurers Report: The Treasurer report was provided at this time. Additional discussion will be needed in advance of the CD that is set to mature on January 8, 2026 ($142,656.96 as of 10/31) – Agent will pull Associa Partner Bank rates in advance to share with the Board for consideration. The Board should also consider possible major expenses and how much to re-invest.	All	Pending
5. The Board reviewed proposals from AOC and BLC to re-grade the front lawn area of 6815 Chrysler Street which was excavated earlier this year to replace a sewer line. The Board unanimously approved the BLC estimate providing they will warranty the seed in the spring if it does not go dormant and seed properly. Agent will send approval to vendor.	Julie	Done

6. Follow up with BLC on areas not completed for leaf service (back of Wildwood Court specifically). *Message sent to owner of BLC	Julie	Done
7. The Board reviewed the proposal from Bartlett Tree regarding trimming over sidewalks, lawn areas, and buildings. After some discussion, they agreed to have AOC spend one day on the time block trimming what trees they can, concentrating on sidewalk and parking areas – then to have Bartlett revisit and determine what work they can do in approx. $5K blocks. Agent will send update/directive to AOC, then follow up with Bartlett when the work is complete.	Julie	Done
8. Discussion regarding dumpsters noted on time block – agent will follow up with AOC to ensure they are servicing ALL dumpsters weekly in the 2 hour allotted time. *Message sent to AOC leadership	Julie	*Done
9. Kent shared that he will be unavailable for the regular meeting date in January. Unavailable dates: 1/13-1/24. Available 1/26-1/29. After discussion, the Board Members present elected to keep the meeting date the same as the regularly scheduled date (January 21). Agent will inform Kent.	Julie	Done
